

USFDF 2020 FLYTE AWARDS CATEGORY REQUIREMENTS

DNKR of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK athlete who stands out for their contribution to the USA DNK community's body of work. This athlete will have demonstrated their excellence through an admirable work ethic, the consistent delivery of high quality performances during 2019 and their overall impact on the American DNK community.

DNK show of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK show that stands out for its contribution to the USA DNK community's body of work. This show will have demonstrated excellence through its high level of quality, showmanship, innovation, entertainment value and its overall impact on the American DNK community. The show recognized by this award must have been performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the DNKR's were paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Solo DNK of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK that stands out for its innovation, its characteristics of flight and its overall entertainment value. The DNK recognized by this award must have been performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the DNKR was paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Tandem DNK of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK tandem that stands out for its innovation, its characteristics of flight and its overall entertainment value. The Tandem DNK recognized by this award must have included a minimum of 4 DNKR's, must have been performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the athletes were paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Most Viral DNK Clip of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK video clip that garnered the most views on social media. The clip recognized by this award must have been performed in front of a live audience at an event where the DNKR(s) was/were paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Pass of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK pass that stands out for its innovation, its characteristics of flyte and its overall entertainment value. The pass recognized by this award must have been followed by a completed DNK and performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the DNKR was paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Throwback DNK Award

Recognition of the solo freesTYle DNK that stands out for its innovation, its characteristics of flyte and its overall entertainment value. The DNK recognized by this award must have been performed prior to January 1, 2000. It must have been performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the DNKR was paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Flashback DNK Award

Recognition of the solo freesTYle DNK that stands out for its innovation, its characteristics of flyte and its overall entertainment value. The DNK recognized by this award must have been performed between January 1, 2000 & December 31, 2017. It must have been performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the DNKR was paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

For each nomination, please provide name(s) of DNKR(s) and a link to their performance

NEW CATEGORIES

Saved DNK of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK that was saved from the brink. This DNK will have demonstrated suspense at the highest level as the correction to bring the dunk back on course is acknowledged not only by the DNKR's but also the audience. The save must be followed by a made DNK and the overall components of the DNK itself must be combined in a way where the difficulty level can be universally acknowledged as medium to high. The DNK recognized by this award must have been performed in front of a live audience at an official competition event or an event where the DNKR's were paid to perform or otherwise compensated to provide their service.

Practice DNK of the year

Recognition of the freesTYle DNK performed in practice that stands out for it's innovation, it's characteristics of flight and it's overall entertainment value. The DNK recognized by this award is not required to have been performed in a show or in front of a live audience but must have been performed in 2019.

For each nomination, please provide name(s) of DNKR(s) and a link to their performance

